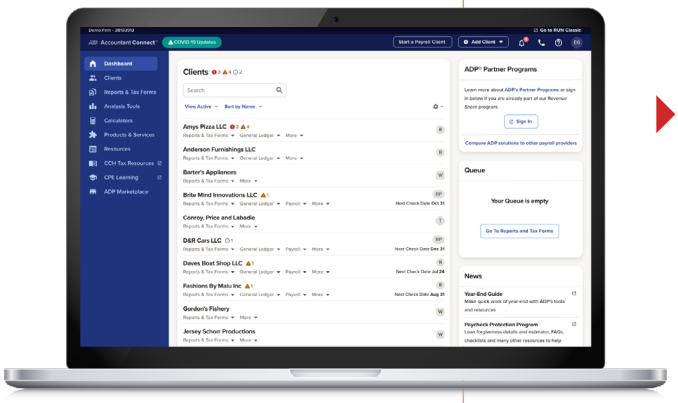
Lean into learning to better advise your clients

They say, 'Knowledge is power'. Deepen your client relationships and become one of their trusted advisors by staying up to date on changing legislation, the evolving landscape of their industries and new HR best practices that may benefit their organizations.

ADP® has many complimentary resources to help you lean into learning about more ways to support the goals of your clients.



Accountant Connect℠ is ADP's award-winning, multi-client payroll management and analytics platform. Help strengthen your clients' businesses, streamline critical processes and gain easier access to key practice resources so you can advise on more strategic parts of their business. Accountant Connect provides:

- Authorized access to your clients' profiles, payroll data and reporting
- Insights into your clients' benefit offerings and organizational trends so you can recommend HR tools when the time is right
- Critical analysis tools like Compensation Benchmarking and business valuations and much more. Oh, and it's FREE!

Register today at adp.com/accountantconnect.

Always Designing for People®

Subscribe to SPARK Powered by ADP®. This blog covers it all, including: competitive benefit strategies, talent recruitment and retention, analysis of new high-impact legislation, adapting to new market drivers, workforce management trends and minimizing risk.

ADP HR Tip of the Week is another blog that focuses on small businesses. Get weekly articles on important timely HR topics like pay, performance, administration, hiring and more.

Eye on Washington reports on breaking news and important legislative updates at the federal, state and local level relating to payroll, reporting and other timely topics.

IBISWorld Industry Reports are detailed intelligence reports on dozens of industries available in Accountant Connect and upon request.

ADP offers complimentary continuing education webinars on timely topics featuring prominent tax experts, industry thought leaders, certified HR professionals and legal counsel. Bookmark the calendar at adp.com/cpe and register for upcoming events.

{HR}preneur™ A podcast by ADP® designed to help the small business community tackle day-to-day workplace issues. Each episode is about 15 minutes long and offers tons of practical advice. Listen from our Podbean page or Apple® Podcasts.

Together, lets empower the success of the clients we share.

To learn more about these resources and working with ADP, contact me today.

Danielle Page

706.361.8186

danielle.page@adp.com

Always Designing for People®

The views expressed on this blog are those of the blog authors, and not necessarily those of ADP. This blog does not provide legal, financial, accounting, or tax advice. The content on this blog is "as is" and carries no warranties. ADP does not warrant or guarantee the accuracy, reliability, and completeness of the content on this blog.

ADP, the ADP logo, Always Designing for People and SPARK Powered by ADP are registered trademarks of ADP, Inc. Accountant Connect is a service mark of ADP, Inc. All other marks are the property of their respective owners. Copyright © 2021 ADP, Inc. All rights reserved.